Dear Ms. Cohen,

I am pleased to acknowledge the gift of $10,000 from the Cohen Esophageal Cancer Initiative, Inc. to Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center.

Now is a particularly remarkable time in cancer research and care: seminal breakthroughs at the most basic level of the disease promise to result in exciting new advances and discoveries. Philanthropy such as yours ensures that this type of groundbreaking progress is able to continue unimpeded by a lack of resources. We remain deeply grateful for your steadfast commitment to our cause, and look forward to continuing our partnership.

Thank you again for your commitment to our work. You have truly made a difference.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Richard K. Naum
Vice President, Development
